

You are an internationally educated nurse (IEN) not registered to practice in Ontario.

Provide us with your CNO documents outlining your requirements to practice in Ontario. We will use these documents to provide you with a personal plan – called an academic guide – that contains the list of courses you will be required to complete.

Your CNO documents identify NURSING EDUCATION – NEXT STEPS (COMPETENCY GAPS)

Your CNO documents identify EVIDENCE OF NURSING PRACTICE – ADDITIONAL EDUCATION REQUIRED

You are an RN, and your academic guide says you must ...

You are an RPN, and your academic guide says you must ...

Complete the full (17- to 18-course) Academic Pathway for IEN Program as a bridge to university (see your GBC CE academic guide for details).

Complete courses from the IEN Competency Upgrading Pathway delivered through OntarioLearn (see your GBC CE academic guide for details).

Complete the full (17- to 18-course) Academic Pathway for IEN Program (see your GBC CE academic guide for details).

Complete a select cluster of nursing courses as indicated in your GBC CE academic guide (see your GBC CE academic guide for details).

Request to receive the George Brown College Academic Pathway for IEN Certificate.

Request to receive the George Brown College Academic Pathway for IEN Certificate.

Complete the cluster of nursing courses indicated in your GBC CE academic guide (see your guide for details).

Request for a Verification of Course Completion (VCC) to be sent to the CNO.

Request for a Verification of Course Completion (VCC) to be sent to the CNO.

Ensure you have completed the NURS 9215 (Clinical Practice Consolidation) hours dictated on your academic guide.

You can now apply to another institution to join a bachelor's (baccalaureate) nursing degree program.

Request to receive a George Brown College Academic Pathway Evidence of Safe Practice Certificate.

Request for a Verification of Course Completion (VCC) to be sent to the CNO.